

Photo by Mary Andrus

Artist Mentoring

An artist, art educator, author, and a pioneer of art therapy in the Midwest, Don Seiden has been a vibrant force in the arts for over 40 years. His ability to read, understand, and develop the potential of the artist's work affords an opportunity to take your artmaking experience to the next level.

Whether you are interested in professional critique or personal revelation, looking for a larger audience or self-fulfillment, through private consultation Seiden can help you envision your work, your self, and that relationship in new, meaningful ways.

A FREE PHONE CONSULTATION will allow you to explore the benefits of artist mentoring.

Please call 773-262-1463 (studio/home), Monday – Friday, 9 am – 5 pm

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

Over 35 solo gallery exhibits, museum, and group shows; many private collections and competitions; featured in numerous reviews and articles in local and national publications.

Co-author of Direct Metal Sculpture; author of Mind Over Matter and the forthcoming Art Works.

Professor Emeritus, School of the Art Institute of Chicago

Former Chair of the Departments of Sculpture, Art Education, and Art Therapy at SAIC

Founder of the Department of Art Therapy at SAIC; pioneered the field of Art Therapy

Recipient of the Special Service Pioneer Award, American Art Therapy Association

Charter President of the Illinois Art Therapy Association

FEE PER 1½ HOUR CONSULTATION: $100 • STUDENT RATE: $60

DON SEIDEN • 1525 W. PRATT BLVD. • CHICAGO, IL 60626